

American Institute for Certified Planners (AICP) Continuing Education Credit

Workshop Session	Credit Type Credits
1B. Land Trusts: On the Front Lines of Nature-Based Solutions to Climate Crisis	CM 1.25
1C. Hot Topics in Land Stewardship	CM 1.25
1E. Land Conservation 101	CM 1.25
1G. Analyzing Exciting Boilerplate Clauses in Conservation Restrictions	CM 1.25
1K. A Walk to the Park: 10 Minutes or Less	CM 1.25
1L. A Team Effort: Securing Community Gardens in Boston	CM 1.25
2A. Forest Carbon Offsets: A Primer for Land Trusts	CM 1.25
2D. Tackling Invasive Plants: A Guide for Land Stewards	CM 1.25
2E. MA DCS & MassWildlife Grant Programs, Open Space & Recreation Plans	CM 1.25
2F. Data Sources and Tools for Prioritizing Land Conservation	CM 1.25
2L. The Merrimack River Trail	CM 1.25
3B. The Water is Coming: Vulnerability, Adaptation, and Nature-Based Solutions	CM 1.25
3C. Engaging Private Woodland Owners in Climate-Informed Management	CM 1.25
3D. Eyes in the Sky: Using New Technologies to Protect Resources	CM 1.25
3E. How to Make the Economic Case for Your Work	CM 1.25
3F. Horse Meadows Knoll: A Case Study in Partnerships & Complexity	CM 1.25
3G. Today's Legal Issues & Solutions	CM 1.25
3K. Placemaking & Art: Making it Relevant, Keeping it Real	CM 1.25
3L. Connecting with New Audiences: Making Conservation Lands Relevant to More People	CM 1.25

It is possible for planners to receive up to 3.75 CM Credits and up to at this conference.

With our thanks to the generosity of the Massachusetts Chapter of the American Planners Association.